Games 49, 50 & 51

Campbell (27-21, 7-16 A-Sun) vs. USC Upstate (14-37, 4-23 A-Sun)

Date: May 14-15, 2009

Time: Thursday, 4 p.m. / Friday, 1 p.m. (DH)

Place: Taylor Field (1,000)

Series: USC Upstate leads 3-0

Live Audio/Stats: www.GoCamels.com

The Series: USC Upstate took all three games in the first ever series meeting a season ago. The Spartans took game one last season 13-2, followed by a pair of one run wins in games two (5-4) and three (6-5).

Last Time Out: Campbell swept Alabama A&M in doubleheader action in Huntsville, Ala. Campbell took game one 23-2, followed by a 13-3 victory in game two. The game two victory was Greg Goff's 200th career victory.

Run Forrest Run: With the 36 runs Campbell scored vs. Alabama A&M, the 2009 squad becomes the first team to score 500 or more runs in a single season. Campbell surpassed the previous record of 470 set by the 1985 team in the 8-7 victory on Saturday at Lipscomb.

Record Setters: Johnson hit his 23rd double of the season at Jacksonville (Apr. 18) and now owns CU's single season doubles record. Johnson passes Mike Priest who had 22 doubles in the 2005 campaign. Chris Bangi was hit by pitch number 18 vs. NC Central (Apr. 21), a Campbell season record. Bangi took the top spot from Josh Maddocks who was hit by 17 pitches in 1993. As a team, the '09 squad now owns the record for doubles in a season. Campbell has 134 on the season, with the record breaking double, number 110 coming against NC Central on Apr. 21. The previous record was 109, set by the 2005 squad.

Campbell Season Notes: In just his third career at-bat, Josh Holskey hit a grand slam as the Camels raced paced NC A&T, 16-5 on Feb. 20... Zach Johnson won A-Sun Player of the Week (Week 2) for his performances against NC A&T, UNC Greensboro and Kennesaw State. Johnson batted .556 in those four games, going 10-of-18 at the dish, with three home runs, 11 RBI and eight runs scored. Johnson's multiple home run game at NC A&T was the first of his career... Jeff Rydman threw a complete game shut out at Florida A&M (Mar. 3), the junior was the first Camel to do so since Mike Ange in 2005... Parker Fleming recorded his first career victory in his first career start in a 15-1 victory against NC Central at the Durham Bulls Athletic Park... Ryan Hamme tossed the Camels second complete game of the season in the loss at East Tennessee State on Mar. 21... Ryan Hamme had three extra base hits @ High Point (3/31), he is the first Campbell player to accomplish that feat since the 2007 season... Campbell surpassed the 2008 squad's stats by posting 21 home runs on the season, while scoring 290 runs (through just 28 games), the 2008 squad had just 20 home runs and 284 runs in 58 games.

Last Ten Games: Campbell owns a 6-4 mark over its last ten games, while USC Upstate has a 4-6 record over its last ten games.

USC Upstate Upends Baseball, 13-2

BUIES CREEK, N.C. - USC Upstate pounded out 16 hits and played flawless defense to hand Campbell a 13-2 loss in A-Sun baseball action, Friday evening at Cleveland S. Harley Park. Campbell snapped its three-game A-Sun winning streak and fell to 6-8 and 4-3 in the A-Sun, while the Spartans improved to 6-10 with a 4-3 league mark as well.

Kyle Bowley, a senior from Apopka, Fla., picked up his third win of the season striking out seven and allowing just one run over eight strong innings. Campbell's Justin Lilly matched Bowley's strikeout mark fanning seven, but took the loss after giving up ten runs in 5.2 innings of work. Bowley moves to 3-1 on the season, while Lilly drops to 1-1.

The Spartans saw five different hitters pick up multi-hit games headed by corner outfielders Keith Bisgounis and Blake Green. Bisgounis paced the USC Upstate notching three hits with two RBI and two runs scored, while Green grabbed three of his own knocking in a team high three runs.

Freshman outfielder Graham Fronk anchored the Camels' offense matching his season high in hits with three. The last time Fronk slapped three hits in a game was against Dayton on Feb. 23. In addition, Bryan Braswell and Ryan Hamme each collected extra-base hits for Campbell.

USC Upstate jumped out to an early 1-0 lead in the first partially due to a strong wind blowing to right field. Campbell's Carlton Floyd was unable to glove the ball off of the bat of Andrew Runion after racing all the way from center field. The two out triple set the stage for an RBI single by Phillip Morgan which flew past a diving Ellis Lowe at second base.

Fundamental baseball allowed the Spartans to tack on another run in the second after Bisgounis doubled and was moved to third on a sacrifice bunt off the bat of Blake Green. USC Upstate shortstop collected his fifth RBI of the season by hitting a chopper to the shortstop to give the Spartans a 2-0 lead after two innings.

USC Upstate capped off its third consecutive inning of scoring with five runs in the third, capitalizing on a pair of Campbell errors. With runners on first and second with one out, an error by Campbell shortstop Zach Johnson allowed Runion to score from second. After Jimmy Tanner drew a walk, back-to-back singles by Bisgounis and Blake Green and an overthrown pickoff attempt at third base by the Camels' Stephen Parsons allowed the Spartans to extend their advantage to 7-0.

The Spartans put the game out of reach posting three run innings in the sixth and eighth. Highlighting the scoring output was the 6-through-9 holes who all had RBI hits in the innings. Tanner and Bisgounis knocked in runs in the sixth, while Green and Eric Guillen drove in runs in the eighth.

Campbell scored single runs in the seventh and ninth, but the late surge wasn't enough. Hamme, a junior from Wilmington, extended his hitting streak to seven games with a leadoff triple in the seventh and scored a run in that inning after being driven in by Mike Causey. Braswell stroked his first double of the season in the ninth driving in Hamme who walked earlier in the inning.

USC Upstate Uses Late Inning Heroics to Earn A-Sun Series Sweep Over Campbell

SPARTANBURG, S.C.- Scott Eckard became USC Upstate's all-time leader in wins after escaping a ninth inning jam in relief in game two and Kyle Bowley scored on a wild pitch in the tenth inning of game three to lift the Spartans to 5-4 and 6-5 victories over Campbell, Monday afternoon at Harley Park. Eckard, also the starter of game three, picked up his 20th career win after striking out a batter and inducing a pop fly to the shortstop in the top of the ninth inning in game two.

A.J. Clark (1-0) earned his first victory of the season after throwing 2 2/3 innings of scoreless baseball in game three, while Campbell's Trevor Smith suffered the loss, striking out one batter in 2/3 of an inning.

In a lineup where seven of the nine starters had hits, freshmen Ellis Lowe and Graham Fronk led the way in game three going a combined 4-for-9. Phillip Morgan and Eric Guillen were the Spartans leaders going 5-for-10 with two runs scored and an RBI.

Campbell (6-10, 4-5 A-Sun) starter Brandon Scott threw 6 1/3 strong innings for the Camels and was credited with a no decision in the final game of the series. The senior right-hander from Robersonville, N.C. struck out three batters and allowed just three earned runs.

USC Upstate (8-10, 6-3 A-Sun) eluded danger in the top of the ninth inning of game two with Campbell runners on first and second after Mike Causey was hit by a pitch. Carlton Floyd lifted Eckard's 2-2 offering to the shortstop and Zach Johnson struck out to end Campbell's threat.

Ryan Hamme (0-2) suffered the loss for the Camels in relief of Hunter Ford after allowing a two out single to Tanner. USC Upstate center fielder Blake Green led the inning off with a single and advanced to second on a Clark sacrifice bunt. Campbell opted to intentionally walk a dangerous Andrew Runion to put a force on all bags, but Tanner followed with a game-winning RBI single. Tanner, a sophomore from Fayetteville, Ga., notched his ninth RBI of the season.

Campbell jumped out to an early lead in game three scoring one run in the first inning and followed with a pair of runs in the fifth. Scott reached first after being hit by a pitch and advanced to second on a wild pitch in the first inning, only to be driven in on a single up the middle by Hamme. Hamme, a junior from Wilmington, N.C., extended his hitting streak to eight games.

Bowley equalized the score at 1-1 after he lifted Scott's 3-2 pitch over the left field wall in the fourth inning. Campbell answered in the fifth with two runs on singles by John Watlington, Fronk and Lowe. Watlington was driven in by Fronk's single up the middle and Lowe returned the favor and knocked in Fronk with his second single of the day. The multi-hit game marked Lowe's team-leading seventh of the season.

After USC Upstate put three runs up in the seventh, highlighted with hits by Guillen, Runion and Morgan, Campbell took advantage of an error by Clark - the Spartan's third baseman - scoring two runs in the eighth. Hamme led the inning off with a walk and Johnson followed with a single only to be pushed over by a Causey sacrifice bunt. A hard grounder to third off the bat of Campbell's Stephen Parson plated both Hamme and Johnson, tying the game at five each.

A pop fly that fell directly down the right field line set the stage for what would be USC Upstate's winning run. After fielding the ball, Hamme overthrew second base on the play which put Clark, who singled to start the inning off the inning, on third base and Bowley advanced to second.

After Smith induced a ground ball to give the Camels their second out of the inning, a wild pitch allowed Bowley to score and finalized USC Upstate's series sweep over Campbell.

Campbell, who committed five errors in its final two contests, has dropped five straight games, while USC Upstate is riding a three game winning streak.
